User Personas

- Jack (A Hydrologist Studying Water Levels)
  - Jack is a Environmental Engineering PhD Student doing research on water level trends for his dissertation. He is going to be utilizing the application by accessing the database to analyze trends in water levels and their correlation with temperature changes.

- Tammy (Middle School Science Teacher)
  - Tammy is a middle school science teacher who is doing a unit on water levels. She currently is taking her students on a field trip to teach them about how scientists record and analyze data. They will be using school phones to record data and school computers to access and analyze the data over the course of the school year.