

System:

- App is the smart phone application
- Server is web interface and database for keeping track of the location
- Viewer is the software for viewing the data
- Students use the app to document their various locations
- App designers design the smart phone application
- Programmers code the app
- App evaluators evaluate and test the app
- Dr. Kuilin Zhang is the officer, client, in charge of the project for developing the app