

Shelley Turner

Age: 38

Gender: Female

Marital Status: Married

Education: Bachelor's in Architecture

Social Life: Separated from spouse and often visits her sister in the Keweenaw.

Work Life: Recently made head of her design team.

Role: Vacationer and tourist.

Personality: Adventurous and outgoing, not wanting to stay in one spot too long. Finds her job boring.

Bio: Needing a break from the stress of her recent promotion and the tension between her and her spouse, Shelley often visits her sister and brother-in-law in the Upper Peninsula. She finds the area simplistic yet full of opportunities for adventure. While seeing the sights with her relatives, she falls in love with the old architecture and makes it her mission to find out about all of the history behind the buildings she sees.

Kimi Raikkonen

Age: 79

Gender: Male

Marital Status: Widower

Education: High School Diploma.

Social Life: Family from Hancock, lived here his whole life. Married has five children and 6 grandchildren.

Work Life: Retired from the Houghton County Road Commission.

Role: Local, Elderly.

Personality: Loves the simple life of the Keweenaw, easy going. Will tell you hundreds of stories from years back about various things he's seen plowing, or about what he used to do as a kid in Hancock.

Bio: Wanting to know more about when his father and mother came to Hancock, Kimi wants to search the house he grew up in. He finds the Calumet and Hecla records linked to his father and the house he owned. In these records he finds his father's wage in 1921. Next he clicks on some of his good friends from high school houses. Here he finds a story on how his best friend's father battled with the State of Michigan to get a liquor licence for the bar their family owned. Kimi is using the app to relive memories or find things he was too young to know.

Kurt Daniels

Age: 22

Gender: Male

Work Life: Works part time at the school library. He's also a research assistant to one of the History professors.

Role: Researching for a school project.

Personality: Very curious and passionate about peoples' heritages. He loves old stories.

Bio: For a school project, he's researching the history of his boyfriend's heritage, which is from the Finnish Upper Peninsula. He wants to compare the stories passed down from his boyfriend's family with official documents and news articles to see how much the stories have been exaggerated or changed.

Rachel Alder

Age: 35

Gender: Female

Marital Status: Single

Education: PhD in Anthropology and a Bachelor's in Political Science

Social Life: Very invested in political activism and has lots of friends from various activist and social science groups.

Work Life: A little bit of a workaholic. Studies how immigrant cultures interact.

Role: Researcher and historian.

Personality: Friendly and curious, but very methodical and prefers data and logic to lots of human interaction.

Bio: Currently, she's working with a team to investigate immigrant interactions throughout the history of the U.S. This will hopefully lead to data that policy makers can use for current and future immigrant policies that are better for all parties involved. She, specifically, has a fanatical interest in mining, so she's focusing on mining areas, such as the Upper Peninsula.
