

Persona 1

Building Manager

James Clements

Age: 59

Height: 6' 2"

Weight: 198 lbs

Right Handed

James is a loud pronounced character with a booming voice. He has been overseeing the daily activities of the local sport's arena for 17 years. He likes to get things done, and he knows how he wants them conducted. James is skeptical of new practices, but eager to adopt them once they prove their effectiveness. He has been computerizing everything over the last 10 years. James is highly organized, and has been a terrific manager since he was given the position. He is looking to retire within the next 10 years.

Persona 2

Expert Drone Pilot

Charley Thornton

Age: 27

Height: 5' 9"

Weight: 184 lbs

Right Handed

Charley is obsessed with new technology and toys. He is somewhat reserved, but will talk your ear off about his latest gadgets. He has a very nice PC, and feels right at home with a keyboard and mouse. He dropped out of college midway through an electrical engineering degree to start a business flying drones. It turned out to be a lucrative move. He is a certified drone pilot under FAA-107. His business often conducts wedding videos, building inspections, and land surveying. They once filmed a shot for a movie! Charley personally flies the drones whenever he can. Charley has a few friends, but they are very close.

Persona 3

Hobbyist Drone Flier

Devin Wainwright

Age: 47

Height: 5' 7"

Weight: 146 lbs

Right Handed

Devin is a dentist. He isn't the greatest dentist, but he enjoys his work. Much of his work as a dentist requires computers for record keeping. But, besides work, he doesn't use computers much. Outside of his work he generally uses touchscreens. Recently, he has begun flying and building drones hobbyistically. He would gladly admit he is not the most skilled pilot but he is eager to try new things.

Persona 4

Construction Worker

Will Foster

Age: 23

Height: 5' 11"

Weight: 182 lbs

Left Handed

Will doesn't care one way or the other about his job, but he shows up every day. Many of his friends from high school have recently graduated from college with degrees. Will owns an older laptop, but doesn't care much about computers. He can usually figure out how to do what he needs with them. Will has flown drones before. He has worked as a construction worker since the age of 17, and has noticed them becoming more prevalent on work sites in recent years. He might buy one. He finds them fun. Will doesn't think much about the future.
