

Feedback for Our Team

1) Scientist: how do you specify data between crew battles and single. How are we going to establish

THE LAW OF NAMES: From top to bottom:

Set- any number of rounds

Round- Bo3 in a crew battle, can have up to 7 games each

Games- An actual match playing the game

Singles Matches will have a "round", but we will look at the games because it will only be one round

2) Is there going to be an allowance for players to take notes when submitting match? (We can add this feature)

3) Are we looking to automate any match data? (Yes)

4) Are users going to be able to login/create account, as well as input data for others (Yes, we can add note when someone inputs for another player)

5) Note when someone inputs data for someone else (Yes)

6) Will this run on multiple versions, Melee, Smash 4, Ultimate? (We'll use for Ultimate only)

7) A re we going to turn the data to graphs we receive.

8) Uploading video of matches (Not planning to)

9) How long can someone make edits after event (TBD)

10) Permissions between Statistician and Admin (same sign in page for all users, but permissions will be different)
