

An aerial photograph of a large forest fire. The image shows a dense forest of evergreen trees, with a significant portion of the upper half being consumed by bright orange and red flames. Thick, billowing white and grey smoke rises from the fire, filling the sky. The foreground shows a mix of green trees and some charred, skeletal remains of trees. The overall scene is one of a major wildfire event.

Asher App
Version: 3
February 12th, 2024

Login View

Welcome

Login

Continue As Guest

Need to setup an account?

Request Credentials

Home View

Cami123

Logout

Begin New Form

Continue Form

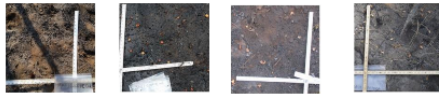

View Database

Download Database

Form View

Cami123

Logout

Site Name and Plot ID

User/ Team Name

Geolocation:

Latitude: Longitude:

Ash Depth (cm):

Have the roots been altered from pre-fire condition? Yes No

Moisture Level: Wet Dry

Ash/ Soil Description:

Please include any additional details here.

Save and Exit

Save and Submit

